III. NEWS

1. This week is the last for this tour of EMLL at la Arena Mexcio. Next week it's back to la Arena Coliseo.
2. The original Gran Markus (Juan Chavarria) has been sick and in and out of the hospital for the last six months with pancreatitis. It has been reported that he has lost a ton of weight, from 140 kg (308.7 lbs) to 95 kg (209.475 lbs) in six months. That's a loss of 99.225 pounds.
3. In an article on el Rayo de Jalisco junior, it was reported that he has won 36 mascara contra mascara matches, and that among his victims are el Egipcio, M S 1, Masakre, and of course Cien Caras.
4. The real name of Babe Face is Ben Heref senior. (not a very hispanic name). His oldest son, Ben Heref junior, is now 17 and is training in a Mexico City gym now for his lucha libre debut.

5. The new Mexican National Tag Team (Parejas) Champions, los Destructores, Tony Arce and el Vulcano, have been a tag team now for eleven years and this is their first major title as a team or singles.
6. This week's Lucha Libre Mundial accuses the EMLL in a roundabout way of faking it's "Cartometro del Ring" letters count. It reports on page 22 that here is a "real count of letters received:" and lists this top ten from the past week into their editorial offices:

RANK	LUCHADOR	LETTERS
1	Octagon	66
2	Atlantis	62
3	Konnar el Barbaro	23
4	Alcatraz	20
5	el Rayo de Jalisco junior	17
6	Super Muneco	15
7	Lizmark	14
8	Canek	11
9	Mil Mascaras	10
10	el Dandy	10

7. Just some corrections to my biographical data list:
 - * Lizmark (Juan Banos) debuted 04/79, not 04/76
 - * The date of birth of el Brazo de Oro (Jesus "CHucho" Alvarado Nieves) is 6/13/60.
 - * Black Power II (Johnny Vaelli Guzman) was born in 1962 and lists San Antonio, Texas as his current home.
 - * Black Power I was el Indomito (Vincente Carbajal). His el Indomito is a nickname, not a ring name, and was given to him by boxing promoters when he took up that sport.
 - * Blackman I (Alvaro Melendes) debuted in 1977, not 1972.
 - * el Signo was born in 1953 and lists his home now as Ocotlan, Oaxaca.
 - * el Texano lists his home as Tijuana, Baja California.

1. All Japan Professional Wrestling 6/3/91

This show was taped Friday, May 24, 1991, before 4,900 fans in Sapporo, Japan. It was broadcast Monday, June 3, 1991, at 12:30 am-1:25 am Tojyo Time on Channel 4, Fuji TV, in Tokyo.

1. Clips of Abdullah the Butcher pinning Joel Deaton with the jumping elbow drop (and use of Deaton's whip) in 8:10. Just the last minute aired. The point was to have Butcher challenge Baba who was color commentating at ringside.
2. Pro Wrestling News:
 - a. Clips of The State Police defeating Randy Rose and Mike Golden in 13:52. Just the last minute aired; it was okay.
 - b. Interview: The Giant Baba.
3. Jumbo Tsuruta pinned Kenta Kobashi with the backdrop in 22:23. The last 9:30 aired. I think there were more near falls in the last five minutes of this match than any all year, as befitting two of the top ten in the world. Excellent. 3/4.
4. Mitsuharu Misawa and Toshiaki Kawada defeated The SDD (Super Destructioun Duo), Terry Gordy and Steve Williams, in 24:24 when Misawa pinned Williams. I like it okay but not as much as the previous match. I thought they double-clutched at the finish so that Kawada had to hold Gordy to keep him from saving Williams way too long. And the fans saw this and sort of kept expecting the finish than a kick out and gave more of a surprised reaction than a pop until it sunk in about thirty seconds later. ***.

2. All Japan Professional Wrestling 6/10/91

This show was taped Saturday, June 1, 1991, before 15,960 fans at The Nippon Budokan in Tokyo, Japan. It was broadcast Monday, June 10, 1991, at 12:30 am-1:25 am Tojyo Time on Channel 4, Fuji TV, in Tokyo.

1. Pro Wrestling News:
 - a. The Return of The Giant Baba to the ring.
 - b. Interview: Abdullah the Butcher.
2. The Giant Baba, Rusher Kimura, and Masanobu Fuchi defeated Abdullah The Butcher, The Giant Kimala I, and The Giant Kimala II in 13:03 when Baba pinned II after a DDT. The whole match aired. Interesting but not necessarily good. Everyone tried their hardest. *3/4.
3. Mitsuharu Misawa pinned Terry Gordy in 21:18 with a savage elbow to the ear. Great stuff, especially at the end, although I have yet to be convinced that Misawa's facelock can put a guy to sleep in fifteen seconds (or even fifteen minutes). I think when Misawa hit Gordy with the enzigiri at the thirteen minute mark it legit sliced him open. Good stuff, especially to me by Gordy. ****.
